

Montana Department of LABOR & INDUSTRY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Monday, September 25, 2017

CONTACTS:

Theresa Sroczyk, Labor Standards Bureau, MTDLI

(406) 444-4696

Jake Troyer, Communications Director, MTDLI

(406) 444-1674

Bozeman to Host Annual State Arbitration and Labor Relations Conference

Conference theme is “Learning from the Past, Planning for the Future”

HELENA-Bozeman will host the annual Montana Arbitration and Labor Relations Conference held September 27-28, 2017 at the Grantree Inn beginning at 8:00 AM for each day. This longstanding conference, hosted by the Montana Department of Labor & Industry will be celebrating 38 years of providing Montanans valuable arbitration and labor relations information. The focus of this year’s conference is the changing workplace and what lies ahead for management and labor.

Attendees will hear presentations such as the history of labor relations in Montana, the future of labor relations, contract interpretation, employment law updates, and negotiations. On Tuesday, September 26, 2017, the Montana Department of Labor & Industry will conduct Interest Based Bargaining training beginning at 9:00 AM at the Grantree Inn, in Bozeman.

For conference registration and to view the full agenda of topics please visit <http://www.mtlaborrelationsconf.com>. If you have questions about the conference or training, please contact Patty Flynn-Anderson at (406) 444-0032 or email at pflynn-anderson@mt.gov.

WHO: Montana Department of Labor & Industry, Labor Standards Division

WHAT: 38TH Annual Montana Arbitration and Labor Relations Conference

WHEN: Tuesday, September 26, Interest Based Bargaining Training, 9:00 AM

Wednesday and Thursday, September 27-28, 8:00 AM

WHERE: Grantree Inn, 1325 N. 7th Ave, Bozeman

###