DDC VENTURES, LLC, a Montana)

Respondent.)

I. INTRODUCTION AND FINDINGS OF FACT

On February 29, 2016, Pamela S. Schroeder filed a wage and hour claim with the Wage & Hour Unit of the Montana Department of Labor.

On June 15, 2016, after performing an audit with available records, the Commissioner of Labor and Industry, acting through the Wage and Hour Unit of the Employment Relations Division, served a determination of the claim upon the Respondent, from which any appeal or request for redetermination was due by June 30, 2016. The determination found that DDC Ventures, LLC owed the claimant $766.95 in unpaid regular wages and $854.33 in unpaid overtime wages.

On July 12, 2016, the department issued a default order upholding the previous determination based in part on the fact that DDC Ventures had not appealed the determination. After learning that Respondent had filed an appeal prior to the June 30, 2016 deadline, the department vacated its default order. On September 7, 2016, the matter was transferred to the Office of Administrative Hearings for a contested case hearing.

On September 13, 2016, OAH issued a Notice of Hearing which appointed the undersigned as Hearing Officer and set a telephone scheduling conference for September 27, 2016.

Hearing Officer David Scrimm convened a telephone scheduling conference in this matter on September 27, 2016. Respondent's counsel did not appear for the conference. At the conference, a December 27, 2016 hearing date was set.

The Scheduling Order specifically states:

A party's failure to appear for any conference, and/or failure to obey orders issued by the Hearing Officer, may result in sanctions against that party that can include entry of default, dismissal of appeal, dismissal of the complaint, imposition of liability or other appropriate sanctions.

On December 23, 2016, Schroeder informed OAH that due to some sickness in her office she would not be able to participate in the December 27, 2016 hearing. On January 4, 2017, the hearing was rescheduled for February 1, 2017. On January 30, 2017, Mr. Harper notified OAH that due to an illness he would not be able to participate in the hearing scheduled for February 1, 2017. After considerable wrangling with the parties, the hearing was rescheduled for February 27, 2017. On February 2, 2017, Schroeder indicated that the February 27, 2017 hearing date would not work for her.

After additional wrangling with the parties, the hearing date was moved once again to March 20, 2017. During the communication with the parties, each was asked whether mediation might work in lieu of a hearing that was challenging to schedule. Mr. Harper responded that while his client was open to the idea, he stated that he was leery that it would bring the parties to settlement. Accordingly, on March 3, 2017, the Hearing Officer reset the hearing for March 20, 2017 at the Butte Job Service offices.

On March 20, 2017, the Hearing Officer and Ms. Schroeder were at the Butte Job Service at the time set for the hearing, 9:30 a.m. After a few minutes passed, the Hearing Officer called Mr. Harper to see if he and his client were on their way. Mr. Harper did not answer. The Hearing Officer left a message for Mr. Harper to contact him immediately. He did not. At 9:45 a.m., the Hearing Officer went on the record. DDC Ventures was not in attendance. At 9:50 a.m., the Hearing Officer closed the evidentiary record after noting DDC was not present.

II. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The State of Montana and the Commissioner of the Department of Labor and Industry have jurisdiction over Schroeder's claim for unpaid wages under Mont. Code Ann. § 39-3-201 et seq. State v. Holman Aviation, 176 Mont. 31, 575 P.2d 925 (1978).

2. Dismissal is appropriate when the appealing party fails to appear for hearing.

III. ORDER

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

- 1. Respondent's appeal is DISMISSED.
- 2. The determination of the Wage and Hour Unit which found that DDC Ventures, LLC owes the claimant $766.95 in unpaid regular wages and $854.33 in unpaid overtime wages is final. All payments required above shall be mailed to the Employment Relations Division, P.O. Box 201503, Helena, MT 59620-1503, no later than 30 days after service of this decision. This dismissal is a final agency decision.
